

THE GROWING WESTERN ROOFING MARKET

2010 Projected Western Commercial Roofing Market

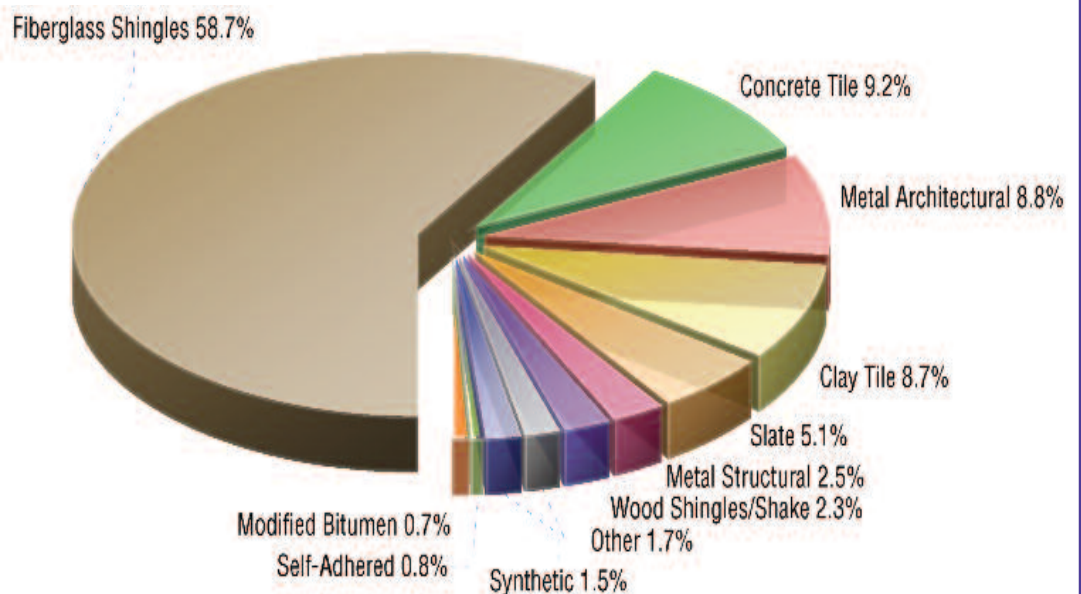

Western Roofing covers a geographic area responsible for generating half of the roofing construction for 2010. The Western roofing market is also one of the fastest growing regions in the country, well above the national average and the healthiest construction economy in the nation. By concentrating your marketing efforts in the West, your company can take advantage of the volume and growth patterns already built into this expanding market.

2010 Projected Western Residential Roofing Market

Western Roofing has a higher concentration of readers in the Western half of the U.S. and Western Canada than ALL the other roofing publications combined. Go with the magazine of the Western Roofing Professional... Go with Western Roofing!
